My dear Mr Payne Collier

I have just finished
going over my Proofs
which I had worked with the copies which you were so good as
to reverse & send me.
I had detected a good
many of the mistakes
which you correct
but several I had overlooked. Now I can send the Tract into

the world with some confidence -

What I said about
the order of the plays
referred <sup>only</sup> to the division into "Comedies" "Histories" & "Tragedies" - which is preserved.

I do not think that there is any thing
to our purpose
in the plays

from which I have made no extracts - but
you may observe
that I have got some additional illustrations from
the others.

I feel greatly obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in helping me through the
press.

I have ordered

you five copies and I shall be delighted to send you any number that you
may wish to distribute among brother Shakespeareans.

I trust that your health will soon be completely restored
and that you may
soon add fresh lustre
to our literature.

Ever yours most truly
Campbell
